Extensis Group, Amper and Wachovia Bank, N.A to Host New Jersey Business Seminar Entitled: Practical Advice For Managing Your Business Through Tough Economic Times Extensis Appoints Chief Marketing Officer to Drive Continued Regional Expansion of PEO Market Leader

Tuesday, February 10, 2009

WOODBIDGE, N.J., FEBRUARY 10, 2008 –Extensis Group, LLC announced today that they are co-sponsoring a seminar to help New Jersey Small Businesses cope with the current economic turmoil.

The program, entitled “Practical Advice For Managing Your Business Through Tough Economic Times” is designed to help New Jersey businesses understand how the sweeping changes proposed by the Economic Stimulus Package impact businesses. Understanding these forces will enable business leaders to implement steps to minimize the risks from the current economic downturn and potentially position themselves for growth in the recovery ahead.

“With all of the late-breaking economic news occurring daily,” said Don Abernathy, President of Extensis, “we thought it was a great time to review the evolving changes in today’s volatile marketplace and look ahead to help New Jersey Businesses chart a path to recovery.”

Ideal for CEOs, CFOs and Business Owners, this session will include the following topics and a Q&A opportunity:

Practical Advice: Managing Your Business in the Current Economy

Tom Mulhare — Partner in Charge, Financial Services, Amper

Tax Update and The Stimulus Package — Planning considerations in today’s economy

Dan Gibson—Tax Partner, Amper

Lori McMahon - Senior Tax Manager, Amper

Employment Update – Recent changes in employment law and regulation impacting small business

Donald Mallo, esq. — Vice President of Human Resources, Extensis Group

Credit Solutions – Innovative ideas to combat the credit crunch.

Tim Smith — Senior Vice President, Wachovia Commercial Banking Group

This complimentary breakfast seminar will be held in Woodbridge, NJ on March 19th, 2009. Attendance is by reservation only and seating is limited.
