SMALL BUSINESSES RESPOND TO THE ECONOMIC DOWNTURN BY FINDING NEW WAYS TO LOWER COSTS AND TURN TO THE EXTENSIS' PEO SOLUTION TO HELP

OCTOBER 30, 2008

WOODBIDGE, N.J. – Extensis Group LLC., New Jersey's largest Professional Employer Organization (PEO), has publicly released that in the last 90 days, it has experienced a 54% year over year increase in requests for proposals from small business owners. Small business owners have intensified their efforts to find innovative methods to manage their costs and drive a higher ROI on their Human Resources investment. This partnership with Extensis positions small business owners to minimize the impact of the current volatility in the economy, provides a strong partner with years of experience in this marketplace and positions their businesses for renewed growth.

In the October 13th 2008 Edition of NJBIZ, Extensis is featured in an article describing the competitive advantages of utilizing a Professional Employer organization. This article can be found here: <http://njbiz.com/article.asp?aid=76283>

“Economic change drives business leaders to look for a competitive advantage” said Don Abernathy, President of Extensis. “Increasingly, small business leaders are partnering with Extensis to manage their costs and free up more resources to position themselves for growth as the economy recovers.”

Extensis was founded ten years ago with the concept of providing PEO services to the small and mid-sized business community in the NJ-NY metropolitan area. By focusing on actively guiding our clients through the challenges of growing a business, Extensis helps our clients become true employers of choice in their business communities.
