Extensis Group Featured In Enterprise Magazine

May 26, 2009

WOODBIDGE, N.J. Extensis Group LLC., the largest New Jersey based Professional Employer Organization (PEO), is currently featured in New Jersey Chamber of Commerce - ENTERPRISE Magazine. (<http://www.extensigroup.com/documents/ENTERPRISE2Q2009v12.pdf>) Extensis has years of experience working with its clients to optimize the cost effectiveness of their HR expenses and providing valuable guidance in this fast changing economic and legislative climate.

Extensis enables their clients to cost-effectively outsource the management of human resources, employee benefits and payroll. As a result, these client companies can focus on their core competencies and growing their business.

"Small Businesses are taking a deep look at their operations and are actively seeking alternative methods of doing business by which they can cut costs," said Dan Sheridan, Chief Marketing Officer of Extensis, "They are really having to look at how much they are spending and what they are spending on."

"Along with that, companies have to be aware of new protections recently passed by Congress to help the newly unemployed keep their health insurance", said Don Mallo, Vice President of Human Resources for Extensis. Enhancements to the COBRA laws are just one of the "Hot HR Issues" covered for the article. Other topics include, Furloughs, Increased Litigation, Changing Overtime Regulation and the Employee Free Choice Act.

Extensis was founded ten years ago with the concept of providing PEO services to the small and mid-sized business community in the NJ-NY metropolitan area. By focusing on delivering high customer satisfaction and actively guiding their clients through the challenges of growing a business in this region, Extensis has delivered year over year growth. Now, Extensis stands alone as the largest New Jersey based PEO, providing outsourced Human Resources, Administration, Benefits and Risk Management Solutions.
